Conference Presenters

Jason Wood

United States Secret Service

Jason has worked 21 years in law enforcement, the first 4 years as a Police Officer in Kansas City, Missouri and then the last 17 years as a Special Agent with the United States Secret Service (USSS). Jason is the Resident Agent in Charge (RAIC) for the states of Utah and Idaho. Before moving to Salt Lake City, he was in management in Los Angeles. Previously he was on the President's Detail in DC under the Obama and Trump administrations. In one form or another, he has worked on over 500 protective visits.

Jason lives in Lehi, has been married for 22 years and has 4 children.

Douglas S. Hart

Douglas Hart has devoted nearly three decades of his life to law enforcement as a Special Agent for the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). During his 27 years in the FBI, Doug amassed a wealth of experience investigating violent crimes and potential threats of violence. In recent years Doug served as the FBI Supervisor for all Criminal Programs in Southern Idaho. In this capacity he had managerial and supervisory responsibility for Violent Crimes Against Children, Complex Financial Crimes, Public Corruption, Civil Rights, Violent Incident Crimes, Drug Trafficking Crimes, and Transnational Organized Crimes.

Doug's passion in law enforcement centers around the prevention of targeted acts of violence. As one of a select group of Certified Threat Managers in the United States coupled with his expertise investigating violent crime, Doug is uniquely qualified to assist organizations in identifying, managing, and mitigating internal and external threats. His experience in this area includes:

- Responded to 3 active shooter events
- Managed and investigated hundreds of Guardian Incidents (FBI program for intake of threats)
- Assessed more than 70 "threat to life" incidents for the FBI
- Conducted numerous trainings for schools, law enforcement, and public/private organizations on threat assessment and response throughout the West
